Fred Ross and Paul Coates that he has some good strong ones available. Coates, who was in Palm Springs this week, will be High Sheriff of the annual rodeo and will appear with ex-Los Angeles County Sheriff Eugene Bisculuz, who will be honored as "Mr. Rodeo." The selection of a queen and grand marshal will soon be announced. The rodeo, which will be held Feb. 7-8, will benefit the Mounted Police in their annual raising of funds for rescue equipment. Car Registration Renewals Show Early Surge Comparatively heavy early renewal of automobile license tabs was indicated this week with nearly 600 having been issued from the two temporary registration offices in Palm Springs.

The clerk at the Bank of America reported last night that 351 tabs had been issued during the first two days that the registration has been open, and the Automobile Club of Southern California reported that it has issued a total of 232.

Local registration was started on Jan. 2 and will continue through Feb. 4.

Silver - white renewal stickers will be issued on receipt of fees noted on the registration cards mailed to automobile owners by the state. The special service in the community can only accept the punched statement cards mailed to auto owners.

REBEL PUBLICATION SCOFFS AT FLYNN'S 'WOUNDED' REPORT

HAVANA (UPI) — The rebel publication Revolution scoffed today at Hollywood star Errol Flynn's report that he was wounded "while operating with Fidel Castro."

"That one (Flynn) never saw Castro," said Violeta Casals, a woman broadcaster for the rebel radio, in an article published by Revolution.

Flynn, who said he had been strafed by a government plane while traveling with a band of rebel raiders, showed newsmen here a leg wound which he said was caused either by a government bullet or by a chop of the mason. It knocked off a pillar behind which he had taken cover.

Auto Insurance Rates Changed

New auto insurance rates went into effect throughout California today, but safe-driving Palm Springs motorists apparently have the most to gain in the way of rate reductions.

Rates posted by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Auto Underwriters Association show an up and down scale for new rates — with the "downs" far outweighing the "ups" here.

FOR THE RESORT area, the "down" measures $8 for material damage insurance, while the "up" is a scant $1 for Class I public liability policies, according to a survey of local agents.

The underwriters association which determine the rise and fall of insurance premiums noted that

STORM NETS MORE RAIN, SOME SNOW

The tailend of the sudden thunderstorm that dumped a total of 47 inches of rainfall on Palm Springs Monday and yesterday — and from four to six inches of snow on nearby mountains — moved out of the area this morning, but cagy weather experts said there was "a chance" that more precipitation might hit the Village before the weekend.

In line with that possibility, the weatherman forecast variable cloudiness today through Thursday, slightly warmer today and slightly colder tonight.

THE STORM, which added .33 inch yesterday to the .14 inch Monday total, did only slight damage and inconvenience here, although some interruptions of power and telephone service were reported.

A palm frond fell on power lines at 468 West Tahquitz Drive at 12:38 a.m. today, and California Electric Power Co. workers shut off the juice for 18 minutes until they could locate and remove the wayward branch. The shutoff affected the southeast sector of Palm Springs, according to E. R. Burkett, district commercial supervisor.

A wet cable in the Merito Vista area, north of Chino Canyon, yesterday halted telephone service but California Water and Telephone Co. repairmen quickly located the trouble and service was restored by 4 p.m.

DOAK DAVIS, Palm Springs district manager for the telephone company, said that other telephone disruptions were "on a

Education Board To Meet Jan. 8

Members of the Palm Springs Board of Education will hold their first regular meeting of the New Year at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in the high school music room.

Board members and school administrators will also attend an informal luncheon meeting at noon Thursday with members of the City Planning Commission.

The meeting, called to discuss future school development plans in the city, will be held at the Biltmore Hotel.

rates vary for different areas in the state.

"BUT WE'RE STILL enjoying the lowest rated area in the state for public liability policies," said Village insurance man Earl Hough.

Conversely, Hough pointed out the resort area is still the highest rated for material damage insurance, thanks to heavy wind and sandstorm damages to auto windshields and paint.

The insurance picture for East Riverside County shows that rates for Class I (no male driver under 25) liability rose from $45 to $46, while some areas have increases as high as $9.

small scale — they occurred here and there both yesterday and today" and added that all installers and service men were at work trouble-shooting the difficulties.

"We welcome a small storm like this," Davis said. "It gives us a chance to find trouble and eliminate it. You have a great deal more difficulty when the storm is of major size and lasts a few days."

THE AUTOMOBILE Club of Southern California's Palm Springs office reported that four to six inches of snow fell at Idyllwild and another six inches fell at Big Bear. At Arrowhead, sleet was expected to turn to snow. The fall is still too limited for really good skiing although both Idyllwild and Big Bear said they expected snow fans to turn out for the first fall. The Auto Club advised chains for all mountain drivers.

Yesterday's high temperature was 57 with a low of 44. Today's high ought to be several degrees higher but the low is also expected to be lower — at about 40 degrees — for tonight.

Barstow Ex-GI Shot to Death On Highway 33

COALINGA (UPI) — The bullet-riddled body of Robert Burr Miller, 20, Barstow, recently discharged from the armed services, was found late Tuesday night on old Highway 33 four miles south of here.

Deputy Coroner Alphonse Dickinson said Miller had been shot at least six times in the head and body with .25 caliber bullets.

Dickinson said robbery apparently was not the motive as there were several dollars on the body, a small suitcase nearby and two jackets draped over the body.

Miller had been hitch-hiking when he left relatives in Button-hole enroute to Huron.

Mud Deluges Charred L.A. Fire Areas

4-Inch Rainfall Sends Sea of Silt Into L. A. Homes

United Press International
Gusty winds whipped the north-east for the third straight day, but bitter cold temperatures began moderating Wednesday under the influence of a Western storm front.

The storm Tuesday turned fire-blackened drought sections of southern California into a sea of mud as rains up to 3.57 inches doused the Los Angeles area.

AS THE STORM system moved inland, it sent temperatures soaring into the 50s in eastern Colorado and western Kansas in contrast to sub-zero readings during the weekend.

More than four inches of rain hit sections of the San Fernando Valley, knocking out power service and sending a sea of mud and silt into Benedict Canyon homes. A recent brush fire denuded the canyon of water-retaining foliage.

Other Los Angeles fire areas were similarly deluged by mud and silt. No estimate of the total property damage was immediately available.

An optimistic Los Angeles weatherman reported, however, that "there was no smog."

COLD, NORTHERLY winds, which reached 70 miles an hour, again plagued New York City Tuesday. The combination of cold and high winds were blamed for a rush of fires in the city which killed 5 persons and injured 11 others.

Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanagh, Jr., of New York said all of the fires "were wholly avoidable" and he warned against overtaxing furnaces or leaving children unattended.

THE GALE FORCE winds also toppled trees and utility lines, and turned the eastern end of Long Island into a miniature dust bowl which forced the closing of schools in the heart of the potato growing region.

CC Realty Board Elects Sharp New President

CATHEDRAL CITY — Members of the Cathedral City Board of Realtors yesterday elected Clifford Sharp as their new president. Other officers elected were Benton Beckley, vice president, and Jack Neal, secretary-treasurer.

AT THE SAME time, board members agreed to inaugurate a new multiple listing service which is expected to go into operation by Feb. 1.

The new service will involve the entire membership of brokers and salesmen associated with member firms.

BOARD OFFICERS said the new multiple listing will be patterned after the successful operation of the Riverside board.

Deseret-Capades to Benefit LDS Church Building Fund

Tickets went on sale here this week for the Palm Springs production of "The Deseret Capades of 1959," a star-studded variety show benefitting the Latter Day Saints church building fund.

Presented by the Deseret Theatrical Artists group, the show is scheduled for presentation at the Palm Springs High School auditorium Saturday, Jan. 17.

PROCEEDS FROM the show will aid the $250,000 building program of the Palm Springs LDS church.

Presented by prominent Hollywood entertainment stars, the two-hour show is a fast-moving production aimed at adults and youngsters alike. Several "guest stars" are expected to join the program, according to C. B. Crow, of Palm Springs.

Soviet Deputy Guest of Eaton At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan arrived here today to spend the day as a guest of financier-industrialist Cyrus Eaton.

The Soviet official and his party were welcomed with a warm handshake by Eaton, but banners on a group of 100 cars, which assembled at Hopkins Airport two hours before Mikoyan's arrival from Washington, were not so cordial.

"Mikoyan — go home and take Eaton with you!" was one of the sentiments expressed on placards carried by six organizations in the protest demonstration.

WRIT OF MANDATE CASE STILL PENDING ON INCORPORATION

A determination in the writ of mandate case on the attempted incorporation of North Palm Springs is still pending in India this week, almost a full month after special extra sessions Judge Wally Rouse heard arguments from both the proponents and protestants.

A group of North Palm Springs residents have retained the firm of Slaughter, Schlesinger and Schlecht to try to block the incorporation attempt until a better understanding of the problems can be presented to the voters.

Attorney Jim Schlecht has been successful in stopping the Riverside County Board of Supervisors from acting on setting an election for the incorporation by objecting to a technicality in the procedure followed by the applicants.

Battles Seen On Filibuster, Labor Laws

Martin Sidelined By GOP Shakeup; Kuchel Gains Post

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The new and bigger 88th Congress convened today with a Democratic leadership pledge of "responsible service" and a Republican minority operating under a changed command in both the House and Senate.

An economy challenge from President Eisenhower and a space challenge from the Russians were expected to dominate the first session of the most overwhelmingly Democratic Congress since New Deal days. But sparks were expected to fly on such issues as effort to curb Senate filibusters, civil rights and labor legislation.

THE CONGRESS with which Eisenhower must deal in his last two years in the White House is the largest in history because of the addition of two senators and a House member from the new state of Alaska.

As the gavels fell in both chambers for the opening, 64 Democrats and 34 Republicans were on hand in the Senate; 283 Democrats and 153 Republicans in the House.

SHORTLY BEFORE the Senate met, Senate Republicans elected Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois as their leader and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California as whip. This completed a GOP congressional leadership revamping that began yesterday when Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana ousted Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts from the House leadership he had held for 20 years.

Democrats operated under their long established leadership — Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas in the House and Sen. Lyndon B.

THE KEYNOTE OF "responsible service" was sounded by Johnson at a party caucus prior to the ceremonial first session.

Johnson called the new session the "starting of a new era" for Democrats.

Johnson cautioned Democrats against any intra-party fighting that may stem from the anti-filibuster and civil rights issues.

Johnson chided the Eisenhower administration's leadership, saying, "there is between the people and their government a deficit of vigor, a deficit of confidence and a deficit of will."

THE REPUBLICAN leadership controversy apparently resulted in a compromise settlement. Dirksen an "old guard" nominee, defeated Sen. John S. Cooper (R-Ky.), the nominee of a liberal bloc.

Kuchel, however, came from the liberal group. He defeated Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) by the same 20 to 14 margin which Dirksen had.

New Congress

Spending, Space To Be Problems

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Here are major issues facing the new Congress:

Spending: President Eisenhower has promised a balanced budget of about 77 billion dollars and a fight to hold down spending; some of his recommendations—particularly in his defense budget—are sure to be too low to satisfy the Democrats.

Civil Rights: The Senate probably will tighten its anti-filibuster rule a little, but legislation in this field is unlikely this year.

Space: Democratic leader will prod the administration to move faster in space exploration, contending that new urgency was given by the Soviet "lunatic."

Foreign Policy: There will be the perennial congressional fight over cutting the foreign aid program; Senate committees will be busy investigating disarmament and other administration policies.

Labor: Both parties want new laws to combat corruption in unions, but there will be rugged battles over specifics.

Housing: Democrats want a far-reaching housing bill with slum clearance and other provisions to replace the measure stalled by the administration last year.

Farm: There will be a search for ways to keep the farmers happy with a less expensive federal farm program.

Inflation: A broad investigation is expected to hunt for measures to check rising prices and interest rates.

Depressed Areas: New legislation probably will be passed to replace the bill vetoed last year to provide help for chronically depressed communities.

Taxes: Congress probably will agree to another extension of present corporate income and excise tax rates; it may be less eager to swallow the administration request for a 1½-cent increase in the gasoline tax.

SRF Unit Meets At New Location

THOUSAND PALMS—A change in location for the weekly meeting of the Palm Springs Chapter of the Self-Realization Fellowship has been announced by Elinor Smith.

The group will meet at 8 p.m., Thursday, in Miss Smith's home at 30-569 Monte Vista Way in Thousand Palms.

Miss Smith will lead the regular discussion group.

HE'S THE WILDEST: Pepe Callahan, a featured performer with Bob Crosby's TV gang and a longtime favorite with the lounge crowd at Las Vegas' Riviera Hotel, shares billing at Howard Manor currently with Murray Arnold group. Pepe is joined by guitarist Julio Corona on his bandstand stints at the popular Village bistro and has been gaining reputa for his stand-out antics while onstage.

ion insurance dropped, from $128 to $120, for the same area; which is a direct indication of improved driving habits.

The underwriter association explains that "auto insurance rates changes are based upon the record of accident loss costs incurred in insured motorists."

Thus, Hough noted, the policy holders themselves are responsible for raising or lowering insurance rates—which rise and fall in direct proportion to driving habits.

THE GENERAL RATE reduction, association officers said, "is part of a countrywide program to adjust rates according to the latest record chalked up by the policyholders."

Rate changes vary for territories within the state, according to losses rolled up by insured cars in various areas, which means that motorists with a better record than others in a different area will have correspondingly lower rates.

Businessman

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Annette Funicello, 16, star of the Mickey Mouse Club who is now graduating to the movies, wondered how come so many kids know where she lived.

Her mother, Virginia, played detective and solved the "crime" by putting Annette's brother, Mike, 7, out of business. Mike was bringing kids to the house, introducing them to Annette and then collecting 25 cents per head.

HIGHER SAVINGS are in store for insurance policy holders who subscribe to the $30 deductible comprehensive policies. It is now possible to save 50 per cent of the base premium, instead of the previous 40 per cent, for these policies.

Owners of 1959 cars, however, will find little relief from insurance rates—thanks to those new, double-wrapped windshields.

Drivers of new cars having any one pane of glass costing more than $100 will pay an extra $3 for straight comprehensive insurance and $10 more for deductible comprehensive, the associations pointed out.

Walter Duncan Services Held Here Today

Funeral services were held today for Walter Bowles Duncan, 76, who died at his Rancho Trailer Park home Monday morning.

Duncan, a retired foreman for the Mountain States Telephone Co., had lived here only five days. He was a native of Missouri and came to Palm Springs from Butte, Mont.

He leaves two sons, Walter B. of Laramie, Wyo., and Don, of Butte, and one daughter, Marylee Duncan, of New York City.

Services were conducted at Wiefels and Son Mortuary chapel by Rev. Don Bachtell, assistant pastor of Palm Springs Community Church. Interment followed at Montecito crematorium.

5 More Civilians Die in Algeria

ALGIERS — (UPI) — The new wave of Nationalist terror sweeping Algeria claimed five more civilian victims Tuesday, French officials announced Tuesday night.

They said a Moslem victim was found with his throat cut near Setif, a city 70 miles west of Constantine, while a French farmer was killed by rebel agents in a barn on his farm near Villebourg, 70 miles west of here.

COMBING HAYSTACK FOR NEEDLE WAS EASY BY COMPARISON

SARASOTA, Fla., (UPI) — Combing haystacks for needles is pleasant and easy compared to what several men went through Monday.

Their was the final act in the saga of the $3,000 pail of garbage.

Mrs. John M. Miller, who resides on nearby Siesta Key, has a habit of changing the hiding place of her jewelry.

Saturday she stuffed the valuables into a paper bag and dropped the bag into her kitchen garbage pail, figuring this was the last place a thief might look.

Along came another member of the household and, not being privy to Mrs. Miller's procedure, set the pail out for the collector.

The collector doesn't normally cover that neighborhood on Saturday. But he did that day.

The job of ferreting the jewels out of the city dump fell to a crew of county prisoners. The search was a success.

JayCees Tab 'Young Men'; Boot Cliburn for Boone

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — The conquest of the Arctic by the U. S. nuclear submarine Nautilus and U. S. progress in several other fields was reflected in the selection of America's 10 outstanding young men of 1958 by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced today.

The 10 men, all below the age of 36, will be presented the silver "Jayson," symbolic of their selection at a banquet to be held in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Jan. 17.

Jaycee President Robert V. Cox will make the presentations.

INCLUDED AMONG those picked for the signal honors this year were the navigator of the history-making nuclear submarine, the Nautilus, a Harvard political scientist and the managing editor of one of the nation's largest newspapers.

Also chosen was popular crooner Pat Boone. He was a last-minute substitution when it was learned that the youthful concert pianist from Kilgore, Tex., Van Cliburn, would be unable to accept an award because of a conflicting concert date.

EXCEPT IN UNUSUAL circumstances all selectees must be present to receive their awards, Jaycee officials said. That was why Cliburn was dropped, they said.

The 10 outstanding men of 1958 were:
Lt. Shepherd M. Jenks, 31, navigator of the submarine Nautilus on its history-making voyage beneath the Polar ice pack.

DR. HENRY A. KISSINGER, 35, Harvard University political scientist, whose book, "Nuclear Weapons and Foreign Policy," was cited by the Overseas Press Club and awarded the Woodrow Wilson prize for the best book in the fields of government, politics and international affairs.

Pat Boone, 24, singer, actor, Donald A. Glasser, 32, professor of physics at the University of Michigan.

DR. JAMES T. GRACE JR., 35, who has, among numerous other significant findings, described and confirmed the thesis that cancer patients retain a resistance to their tumors even when the disease becomes advanced.

Warren H. Phillips, 32, managing editor of the Wall Street Journal.

Loren Edward Schnack, 32, county and probate judge of Adams County, Ill.

Dr. Richard T. Smith, 34, of the University of Florida.

DR. GUS TURBEVILLE, 33, who five years ago became the youngest president of a four-year liberal arts college in the U. S. He is head of Northland College, Ashland, Wis.

PD Chamber to Revamp '59 Plans

PALM DESERT — Introduction of new programs and reorganization of old programs is scheduled for 1959 by the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, a bulletin published by the organization revealed yesterday.

Beautification of borrow pits along Highway 111, support for the new library and community building, a Fun Fair on the Fourth of July, a safety program of road and traffic improvements and a reorganization of the Chamber's structure are scheduled as new projects for the new year.

VFW Buys a Town
TENNANT, Calif. — (UPI) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars has purchased this whole town as a retirement community for its older members.

Tennant, in the northern county of Siskiyou, once was a logging town built by the International Paper Co. As the timber thinned out, the place fell into disuse until the VFW bought it.

California VFW Commander B. C. Hesser said practically all of the more than 150 cottages and other buildings are in good shape, requiring only a "general cleaning and painting."

Old programs that will gain revitalization or remodeling are a rescheduling of the Bing Crosby Ball, reorganization of the Chamber conference-convention program, revision of the organization's business, subdivision and newcomer lists and a rescheduling of Gay Nineties Days.

Already announced is the Chamber's decision to seek a full time manager for its offices here.

7-STORY HOTEL SET AT BERMUDA DUNES

Palm Springs and Riverside County's first multi-story hotel is coming to Bermuda Dunes, new desert residential and golf course community, it was announced yesterday by Ralph T. Kettering, Jr., of Glendale, president of the new Star of the Desert Hotel.

Kettering made this revelation in announcing the signing of Neptune and Thomas, of Pasadena, and Wexler and Harrison, of Palm Springs, as associated architects and engineers for the 200-room, $4,500,000 hotel. Ground will be broken for the hotel's construction this spring and it is expected to be ready for occupancy in December.

TO BE BUILT ON A 12-acre site in the center of gently-rolling Bermuda Dunes Country Club's 18-hole golf course, the Star of the Desert Hotel will tower seven stories above the desert floor. Among its striking innovations will be a six-story high skyroom with revolving floor. This will give guests panoramic views of desert and mountain vistas in all directions without leaving their seats.

The desert area's first "high rise" building will contribute a colorful and unmistakable landmark to the region. A mammoth star, revolving atop the hotel's tower and lighted at night, will be observable from Highways 99 and 111 for miles around.

IN ADDITION TO being the tallest and only golf course-surrounded hotel in the Palm Springs area, the Star of the Desert will be a trail blazer in architectural design.

The hotel will be built on multi-levels consisting of three wings. A three-story wing will house 160 rooms, each completely air-conditioned by refrigeration and boasting TV, radio and private patios.

A seven-story second wing, topped by the star-decorated tower, will consist of the lobby, luxury suites and the desert area's only skyroom cocktail lounge.

The third wing, a two-story affair, will be the home of dining rooms and shops.

The hotel's banquet and convention facilities will be able to accommodate upwards of 750 persons and will be situated within easy walking distance of Bermuda Dunes' first tee.

PBX Installation in Indio County Offices Approved

An agreement with the Coachella Valley Telephone Co. for installation of a central automatic switchboard in the new administrative building now being completed at Oasis St. and Highway 111 in Indio, was approved this week by the Board of Supervisors on recommendation by Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen.

The new PBX equipment will serve all the county offices on the entire 90 acres of county-owned property including the fairgrounds, according to Andersen, and replaces two of three switchboards

Board to Meet In Afternoon

The next session of the Board of Supervisors, Monday, Jan. 12, will be held in the afternoon, at 2 p.m., instead of the usual hour of 9 a.m. in order to allow attendance of the supervisors at an important conference in Los Angeles in the morning.

NO FORWARDING ADDRESS LEFT BY GERMAN AUTHOR

GLENHAUSEN, Germany (UPI) — Conscientious postal officials said today they had done their best but they couldn't possibly deliver a letter received from Jerusalem, Israel.

They said a check of their records showed the letter was addressed to Mr. H. V. von Grimmelshausen and that he died Aug. 17, 1676.

They said the letter writer probably had read one of his ancient books about the Thirty-Two Year War and probably thought it was a recent one.

Stop Signals Proposed for Palm Canyon

May Be Utilized
To Control Holdup
Caused by Walkers

Heavy traffic, creeping at a snail's pace down Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue during the holidays, brought about a possible plan by the City Council to ask for stop signals on Palm Springs streets.

Mayor Frank Bogert, who said it took better than an hour to travel from the Racquet Club to the Tennis Club last Friday, said that the biggest holdup of traffic involved pedestrian crosswalks on Palm Canyon Drive.

UNDECIDED AS TO whether the installation of signals or the decreasing of crosswalks would solve the problem, Bogert has asked City Engineer Frank Harneschlag to check into the problem.

If signals were installed it would be probable that the signals would only be operated during the winter months, being shut off during the summer.

NORMALLY, THE problem could be handled by police officer control, but this is not a problem which lasts only a few hours, but continues for days at a time.

Palm Springs during the past summer installed its first automatic signals at the intersection of Sunrise Way and Highway 111, but was turned down in a request to the state Divisions of Highways for a signal at the intersection of Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive.

City Employees To Hold Credit Union Meeting

Next Friday night the city employees will hold the first annual meeting of the Palm Springs Employees Federal Credit Union. The meeting will be held at the clubhouse on the Polo Grounds, and will feature the election of officers for the new year, fellowship and refreshments, along with reports on the past year's activities.

The Credit Union, organized less than a year ago to provide payroll savings and easy loans for city employees, has now more than 80 members and has loaned more than $5,000 during the past year. Present officers of the organization are Shelby Langford, Marjorie Bowman, Warren Empey, Ann McGee, Morrie Aiken, Robert Peterson, Barbara Bruton, Harry Hill, Al Boston, Harold Betz and Belle Snyder.

Salk Advocates Four Polio Shots

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (UPI) — Dr. Jonas E. Salk, discoverer of polio vaccine, today advocated a fourth, or "booster," shot of the serum for full protection against polio.

Speaking at a symposium at the University of Michigan marking the kickoff of this year's March of Dimes campaign, Salk said some persons failed to get full protection from the first three shots of vaccine because commercially produced serum was not up to the potency of that produced in his laboratory.

Salk said a more potent vaccine was desirable and attainable but a fourth dose of the vaccine now being manufactured by commercial producers would complete immunization of persons who were not completely protected by three doses.

Board Delays Decision on Subdivision

Action Awaits
Planners Report
On W-1 Zone Study

The Board of Supervisors this week delayed until Jan. 26 making a decision on the appeal of Dr. Charles A. Reagan of Palm Springs on planning commission rejection of his latest plans for subdividing of 15 acres north of Palm Springs and south of Highway 60-70-99 in Section 31 of Township 3 South, Range 5 East.

The board's action for the three weeks' delay was taken with the consent of Dr. Reagan after County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., said the county could put off its decision for no more than one week without agreement by Dr. Reagan.

THE DELAY WAS made in order that the planning commission's report on its findings as the result of a study now being made of an area to be placed in the W-1 (watershed) zone, might be completed and studied.

County Planning Director Tyler Sues said the report should be in the board's hands within the next week or so.

"I don't see how we can approve an individual subdivision until the overall solution has been made as to the flood area," said Supervisor George Berkeley.

DR. REAGAN complained that he has presented one subdivision plan after another only to have them turned down. "I've been given the run-around for the past two years," he declared, "because of the opposition of the Coachella Valley County Water District."

He said that homes have been built "within the same path" inside the Palm Springs city limits.

Sues said that even though the area is placed in the W-1 zone, as soon as it is made free from floods by the construction of additional dikes, subdivisions can be approved.

Dr. Reagan consented to the three weeks' delay only after it was made clear that the W-1 zoning could not become effective in that length of time.

THE SUBDIVISION calls for the extension of Sunrise Way as a boulevard access to the tract. It would in fact afford the only means of access and would go through a 200-foot long dip in the river. This would result in isolation of the tract during certain flood periods, according to the Coachella Valley County Water District's engineer, Lowell O. Weeks.

Biblical Prophecy To Be Discussed

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Biblical prophecies touching the current Middle East, Europe and Asia will be discussed at a meeting here Sunday by Charles C. Fish, a Baptist minister and student of Biblical prophecy for 40 years.

The meeting is scheduled for 3 p.m., Sunday, at Town Hall, Eighth and Cactus Streets.

Frequent Guest

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — One frequent guest star on television always gets top billing and never argues over contracts or erupts with emotional outbursts.

He's "Robby," an eight-foot plastic robot who expresses himself through a complex speaker system and built-in tape recorder.

BAKED STUFFED PORK CHOPS

4 "pocket" pork chops
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1/4 cup diced celery
1/4 cup diced apple
2 tablespoons fat
2 cups dry bread crumbs

1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon sage
1/4 teaspoon thyme or poultry seasoning
1/4 cup bouillon
Salt and Pepper

Brown the onion, celery and apple in the fat and then combine with the crumbs, seasonings and bouillon. Stuff each chop with one-fourth this mixture. Season chops with salt and pepper. If pocket has been made along the outer, or fat edge, secure with small skewers or toothpicks. Place in a baking pan; cover and bake at 350° F. for 1 hour. Uncover and continue baking 30 minutes to brown. Makes 4 servings. Note: The chops may be browned first in a heavy skillet and then baked, covered, for 1 hour.

Color Camera Club to Hold 'Studio Night'

Three Set-Ups
To Be Available
For Members

Ramon Park Color Camera Club members will have a shutter bug's holiday when the club stages its "studio night" shooting spree at Ramon Park Friday.

Scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the park recreation hall, the program features a 30-minute illustrated lecture on "Making Pictures People Like," provided by the Eastman Kodak Company.

Three studio set-ups will be arranged for club members. The studios will be arranged by Denny Grant, of Smoke Tree Ranch; Chester Madison, of Cathedral City, and Marguerite Gregory, of Sahara Park.

Club officials also pointed out that Ray Stevens, of Ramon Park will collect slides from members for entry in various competitions. Club membership is open and visitors are invited to attend.

Carmel Harris Opens Couturier Shop in Village

Of importance to all the style conscious women in the desert area, is the opening of Carmel Harris' Couturier Shop in the Oasis Building, it was announced today.

Miss Harris started her first custom shop in Toledo, Ohio, many years ago, then in 1937 after a period of special custom work for the movie studios she opened a shop on the Sunset Strip. Her work soon became internationally known and she was more or less forced into doing a wholesale business. Her Carmel Harris Designed label is known by fashion-wise women in every state in the Union.

With the constant pressure of the wholesale business becoming tiresome, Miss Harris decided she wanted to go back to her true love, custom designing. She will continue to do complete wardrobe coordination, specializing in the simple elegance, depending on line, fabric and fitting to give her models their great and long-life style.

The number of prescriptions filled in the U.S. in 1957 averaged out to 18 a second—at an average cost of $2.93.

Governor Brown Takes Helm
Of California Ship Of State

This is the week that California's "Ship of State" embarks upon another four-year voyage.

The course to be followed in most important respects largely follows routes charted in the past as the most practical and feasible statesmanship in weathering the economic and social problems to be regularly expected on each cruise by the administrative officers of our great commonwealth.

This has already been made clear in advance by the announcements and executive selections in appointments by the new commanding officer in the person of Governor Edmund G. Brown.

The fact that those who would have changed the course by reducing the State sales tax and ventured forth upon unknown and uncharted economic seas were soundly defeated at the polls, greatly reduced the dangers ahead and simplified the problems of a safe passage under the leadership of Governor Brown.

That the new Captain of the good ship California has carefully weighed the important essentials and reached sound conclusions in his preliminary preparations before sailing on this crucial cruise was shown in his summation that the major objectives will be to steer a course designed to maintain economic stability while at the same time doing everything possible to adequately accommodate the needs of the ever increasing number of "passengers."

Now that the last farewells have been said, the lines loosened, the tugs attached alongside, and the giant turbines started, the millions of California stockholders join in an enthusiastic, sincere and unanimous chorus of "bon voyage."

Governor Brown and his administration have the confidence, respect, support and best wishes of the entire populace for a comparatively smooth and successful voyage.

May the good ship California set new records for progress, prosperity and full enjoyment of the better things of life by all.

Good luck, Governor Brown!

Wisdom Is Not Weakness

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Does our mammoth policy of deterrence actually deter the Communists from attack or does it make an attack upon us inevitable?

It is a disturbing question which was raised here recently at the American Historical Convention and by no less than an Army Department historian. He is Louis Morton, a Ph. D. from Duke and author of books on the fall of the Philippines in World War II and American Colonial history. He has a forthcoming volume on American strategy in the Pacific.

DR. MORTON turned loose a beehive among the historians when he blamed the presence of the U. S. Fleet at Pearl Harbor in 1941 for kicking off our participation in World War II.

Dr. Morton reasoned as follows: The U. S. Fleet lay in Hawaiian waters for the alleged purpose of deterring the Japanese from attacking North America. Nothing was further from the minds of the Japanese military leaders. They intended, as both the Chinese Nationalists and Communists would like today, to penetrate and control the rich raw materials area of Southeast Asia.

THIS TREASURE trove was under the Jolly Roger flags of Britain, France and Holland, so that the real Japanese purpose was to drive on the European pirates. This the Nippon war lords dared not do because they were under the guns of Admiral Kimmel and under warning from Washington that an attack on European squatters would be considered an attack upon us.

Dr. Morton said: "American policy of deterrence produced an effect quite different from what was intended, for it borrowed the choice of the rulers to Japan to submission or war."

HISTORIANS WILL long debate whether President Roosevelt or the Jap war lords deserve to be rated as the firebugs of the piece. FDR's case and character do not look any better for the conspiracy of confusion and obstruction which his political heirs have thrown about every investigation of Pearl Harbor.

General Albert Wedemeyer, who was close to the center of the Washington planning, has a new book which coldly indicts Roosevelt as a war-monger. But of more immediate significance today is whether the deterrence policy of 1959 will deter any better in Berlin, Germany, Quemoy, the Middle East, under the seas and in Outer Space that it did at Pearl Harbor.

TO RAISE THE point is not to start pulling rugs out from under the Eisenhower Administration. The commitments are too many, but Lincoln had a comment on his marriage which also applies to polygamous entanglements: "When you make a bad bargain, hug it all the tighter."

We should no more cut and run from Berlin than we ran last summer from Quemoy. But Dr. Morton offered a good reason why we should not be obstinate and not be victimized by our own slogans. The demagogic battlecry, "Unconditional Surrender!" imposed unnatural conditions upon American strategy in both theaters of World War II. In the Pacific it prevented the Japanese from surrendering long before they did.

TO RECONSIDER our extended positions in West Europe and the Far East is not to be weak, but to be wise. It is fair to insist that Mr. Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles ask themselves whether they really want to fight over the spoils of World War II. This is exactly what a war over Berlin would be.

Our leaders might also ask themselves whether we are forcing an either-or proposition upon Russia: submission or war. And whether Washington and Moscow are really equidistant from Middle Europe. And whether our intervention at the threatened ramparts of the world is bringing stability—in Korea? in Berlin? in Viet Nam? in Formosa?—or is preventing stability?

ABOVE ALL, THE Administration as well as the rest of us should start the New Year with some healthy skepticism about the aging policy of nuclear deterrence. By the grace of God, we became the first nation to have an atomic bomb and we still have an overall superiority to deliver thermonuclear destruction.

Nothing should ever fool us into laying these terrible weapons aside. Nothing should prevent our using them in self-defense. But if there comes a future convention of historians and a speaker on the subject, "Was Deterrence a Peace-making Policy?" let us hope that we were not as wrong in 1959 as we were in 1941. Quotes from the News

LAFAYETTE, La. — Newlywed Mrs. Mary Luehm, 81, returning to a rest home here after going off to New Orleans to marry her 84-year-old sweetheart, John: "We aren't old, except for our ages."

BONN, Germany — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer commenting on the outlook for 1959 at his 83rd birthday party: "I think people are far too pessimistic about 1959. As far as I am concerned, I am an optimist."

BODMIN, England — Herbert Grose, owner of the Jamaica Inn, on his reason for selling the notorious tavern of yesterday after operating it for 10 years: "You need strong nerves to live here. We get a few ghosts from time to time."

ALBANY, N. Y. — Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller, commenting on her husband's political aspirations: "I feel that what he wants to do at the present time is to concentrate on being a good governor."

HAVANA, Cuba — Actor George Raft, who owns a gambling casino in Havana, commenting on his experience with a Cuban mob:

"When I came to Havana I had just enjoyed making a picture 'Some Like It Hot.' I didn't know then how hot it could get."

BRANTFORD, Ont. — Charles Erskine who claims he discovered a natural gas well in the middle of a corn field by "witching": "Everyone has a gift and this is mine."

NEW YORK — TV-radio columnist Marie Torre of the New York Herald Tribune on entering prison on a contempt charge for refusing to disclose a news source: "I hope this will lead to legislation in New York protecting a newspaper man's sources. If by serving this term it contributes to legislation toward that end, it will have been worth it."

WASHINGTON — Rep. Joseph W. Martin (R-Ill.) after being defeated by Rep. Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind) for the GOP House leadership: "I thought I had commitments, but they didn't all materialize. A few friends let me down."

FLAT ROCK, N. C. — Poet-

philosopher Carl Sandburg on deposed Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista, an admirer of Abraham Lincoln:

"He read all about Lincoln I could tell him—and it didn't seem to do him much good."

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Navy surgeon general Rear Adm. Bartholomew W. Hogan on the treatment of victims of an atomic attack:

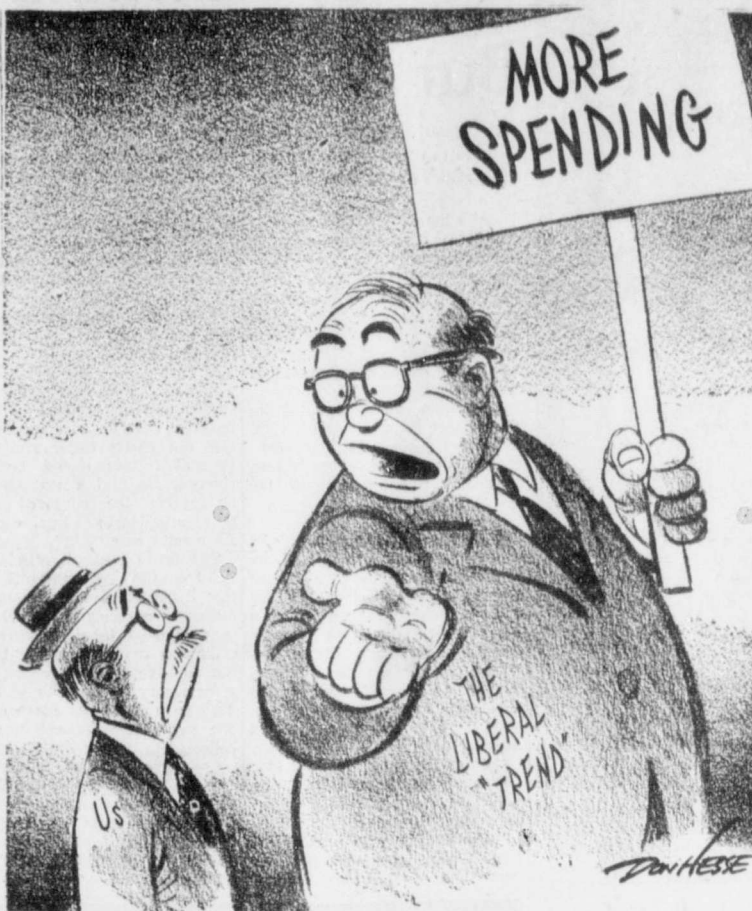

"Those who have hopeless injuries should not consume the time of any surgeon who might be able to spend his time in actual life-saving procedures."

GOLDSBORO, N. C. — Marion Wilson, who was standing near where two fuel tanks dropped from an F100 jet fighter plane plummeted into the ground: "They went off real sharp, like dynamite, I didn't see any fire but there was some smoke coming out of the holes."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Segregationist Robert W. Laster on the possibility of a federal judge ordering this city's closed public schools reopened on an integrated basis:

"We're going to have to be in contempt of this court or in violation of the state law."

We're off and running
On another big year,
With many events
On the calendar here.

Says a friend: "Ho hum, the holidays are over and it's back to the grind for another year."

THE GRIND? It won't be dull here. Every day's a holiday.

The year's schedule calls for many big golf tournaments. All of the annual events which will bring the best pros and leading amateurs.

Climaxed by the International Ryder Cup tournament at Eldorado in November.

THERE'LL BE tennis tournaments, aquatic meets, polo, horse shows, rodeos, auto races, many other spectacular events. Plus what the City Recreation Department has on hand for participant sports.

There will be many other programs providing fun, and excitement headed by the Desert Circus this Spring and, as I get it, revival of the Western Week in the fall.

FOR THOSE who go in for the cultural side, the program lists many events.

Plus that, there are the usual places for fine food and tops in entertainment.

Back to the routine grind? Huh!

NOW TO REVIEW the year so far. It's just a week old. "Adventures in Desert Living" drew quite a hand as our Palm Springs Rose Tournay float cruised Colorado Street.

I know it did in the living room of our beach home where I was the cheer leader for a group of friends from less fortunate places like the interior valleys and coastal plain, watching TV.

I wonder if maybe next year Gus Patzner's fine Palm Springs High School band might be among the great bands which featured the Big Parade.

I SEE WHERE the Palm Springs float drew a prize, second in its division, right behind India, another desert community.

The parade had other attractions, too. One of the local boys who ask politely "what's yours?" as his clients are seated, says that the sale of Screwdrivers has fallen off.

IN CASE you are unfamiliar with a screwdriver, it is a concoction made of orange juice poured into a glass containing a hooker of vodka.

My friend tells me that because, on one of the big TV channels, the picture many times interrupted by a lecture on the healthful properties of the fruit of the orange tree.

Some of his customers want nothing to do with the juice of that product for a while.

AND I LIKE that San Diego float extolling the fishing down there.

There were two beautiful girls on the float and one was announced as: "Miss Yellowtail of 1958."

STAN DELAPLANE'S
Postcard

The best of our Christmas presents was a Japanese hibachi. This is the full circle of the barbecue madness, dear friends: Now if you can't barbecue outside because it is raining, you can BARBECUE IN THE HOUSE!

A hibachi is a sort of cast-iron bucket. In Japan, they bring these things into your room in the dead of winter. They are filled with sand. On top of the sand, your maid-san puts about three pieces of charcoal.

"BETTAH SO YOU catchee mo' warm."

Let me tell you, this glow of charcoal will not even light a cigarette in a cold Japanese winter. But the Japanese are entranced with such an arrangement. The main thing is to get the charcoal artistically arranged. Never mind how cold your feet are.

WELL, THE HIBACHI we have has a grill on top. That is for broiling steaks.

I am an old hand at the barbecue business because it is social as all get out. We do not even SPEAK to the people in our neighborhood who cook over a $1.00 electric stove.

We are a rugged bunch and only cook out-of-doors.

My outside barbecue cost $9.95. It barely puts me in the social swimp. For most of my neighbors have put in solid brick things that are so expensive they are propped up by both first and second mortgages.

EVEN SO, I DO cook out-of-doors. And so far have not been read out of the parties.

My outside barbecue chews up about $2 worth of charcoal at a glowing clip. (Just to toast up half a dollar's worth of hot dogs.)

I sprinkle it with high-priced starting fuel to start it. I used to use patent thinner. But now we buy a special fuel you spray on with a patent nozzle. (The rich use an electric starter but we are not yet in that bracket.)

We sprinkle it and put paper

under it. And we blow and blow and BLOWWWW. Oooooo.

IT HAS ALWAYS been a great relief to me when the winter rains started and we could cook again over a sensible stove.

But no longer. We will cook now on the hibachi. The Japanese hibachi.

THE GREAT barbecue fad is fed on flames of flattery. Believe me, ladies are the ones who put up this business. You know why? Because the men do the cooking.

It is terribly social and the man does all the work. You cannot beat such an arrangement. And I do not know a single lady who intends to try.

WHEN YOU COOK on the outside barbecue, you are armed with an apron with funny sayings. Sayings like: "I'm the Chef." And pockets labeled: "Crying Towel."

All these things, and the long-handled forks and brushes are now moved inside.

Outside, the barbecue smokes. This smoke goes two places: The greatest amount goes in the chef's eye — no matter which side you stand on, the smoke goes thataway.

THE SECOND piece of smoke falls in a sooty mixture on the martini. Gives them a smoky flavor.

Now INSIDE the house, the smoke goes every whichaway. It fills the room. It lies under the rafters and swoops down upon you. You can open every window in the house until you freeze. You think that smoke will go out the windows? I should say not.

That smoke stays right in the warm room. Getting thicker and thicker.

THE STEAKS DRIP fat. The fat blazes. The smoke gets oilier. You know who goes outside WE go outside. Out in the rain and the cold and the foggy night air. Until the smoke clears. By that time the steaks are cold. The road to the Social Register is paved with charcoal.

EARL WILSON:

Here Are Fearless Fo

NEW YORK — Want to be a bore — a pest — a know-it-all? Clip my "Fearless Forecasts," stick them in your wallet or purse then electrify your friends with your immense knowledge of everything.

Eddie Fisher's TV sponsor won't renew him beyond March, but won't cancel him earlier, either. "We bought 11 shows, we're still sponsoring 11, he has five to go," says Ad Exec Terry Clyne. "We only budgeted for 11. Even last summer (before Liz Taylor) "We didn't play beyond March."

Harry Truman will accept a Show Biz offer. Diana Dors will sing, yet, on the Steve Allen show (Jan. 11). Jack Barry and Dan Enright will part. Julie Newmar of B'way (who has bra and will travel) will make a super-size De Laurentis film in Italy next summer and try to glow that Gina Lollo is a flatie. "Go north, young woman, go north!" will become the husband-hunter's cry. In Alaska there are six single men to each single gal and the nights are six months long for spooning.

Milton Berle will Roll-Royce around Hollywood Car's a gift of his wife Ruth. (Now Henry Youngman'll have to have one). NBC will buy Jack Paar's idea that Jonathan Winters relieve him. (Jonathan's joined AA). Only two of Bing Crosby's sons'll get married in '59 (that's all he's got left). Nixon and Tom Dewey, Nelson Rockefeller's adviser, will declare open war.

Jackie Gleason will be revealed to be his fattest yet (due to blonde Honey Merrill making him so contented). Bob Hope'll do a TV film in S. America (only continent he's got left). Tony Forstman, the wool heir and a Yale student, will get real serious with beautiful teen-ager Lynn Galvin, baby of the Copacabana line. "J.B." the Archibald MacLeish play about a modern job, will grab all B'way-drama awards.

Liz Taylor will spend 10G's in trade ads tying for the Oscar for "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." Other strong gal contenders: Deborah Kerr, Susan Hayward, Ingrid Bergman, Roz Russell, Jean Simmons; males: David Niven, Spencer Tracy, Burl Ives, Tony Curtis. Blockbuster picture: "Separate Tables." Mercurolova, the Russian "girl with the walk" in the "Whoop-oop," will outwiggle Jay Mansfield.

"Classiest Guy in America" title will go to Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom, who, Christmas eve, gave each of 3 players a turkey — then said "They're kinda hard to carry home" — whereupon each man got a new Oldsmobile convertible, $100,000 worth of automobiles. Two more forecasts: (1) The above will be 90 per cent correct and (2) if so, I will faint.

The Midnight Earl. George Jessel wants to bring his popular L. A. late hour TV show to N.Y. Mink-clad Jim Cavak visited a N.Y. cafe alone at 3 a.m., and went home with a box of sparrers. John Drew Barrymore, set to replace Kenneth Haigh in the touring "Look Back in Anger," pulled out. Farley Granger was at El Morocco with singer Anita Ellis (who calls him Farfel).

Bea Lillie's making trans-Atlantic calls to Bruce Lahey, stage mgr of "Make A Million." Roz Russell's son Lance Brisson dated actress Jada Rowland, 15, of "The Cold Wind and the Warm." Singer Gretchen Wyler teamed with comic Marty Allen, entered an all-night dance marathon as a gag, and won.

Robt Mitchell will star in Col. "Pappy" Boyington's screen bio, "Baa, Baa, Black Sheep." Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's due to visit the U.S. soon. Frank Sinatra still lends Ava Gardner $100-an-ounce perfume from a N.Y. dept. store. Life magazine's trying to buy some paintings by B. Bardot. Sir John Gielgud's B'way show, a one-man reading, has a payroll of 62. Eva Gabor's the latest to be mentioned for the female lead in the B'way-bound "Destiny Rides Again."

Earl's Pearls: Not all women are guilty of repeating gossip. One of them has to start it. Quote.

The Phil (Sgt. Bilko) Silvers expect their second child momentarily, and Joe E. Ross says, "It's wonderful how Phil raises a family on a sergeant's pay." That's earl, brother.

Damone Challenges Claim

HOLLYWOOD—Jayne Mansfield, combining motherhood with Good Samaritanism, mailed the announcements of the birth of Mickey Hartigan Jr., to her friends along with pleas that they contribute to the Jewish National Home for Asthmatic Children.

Vic Damone is rip-roarin' in from his Puerto Rican personal appearance to challenge Pier Angeli's claim, as outlined in her divorce suit, that she had to work to support him.

ANNE FRANCIS cut her trip short too (she's been vacationing in Honolulu) to answer the subpoena served on her by Buddy Bregman's ex-wife Gloria Haley. Gloria claims Buddy hanged on his alimony payments because of buying expensive gifts for Anne this before Buddy became engaged to Anna Maria Alberghetti, if you're still following me! CHANNEL CHATTER—Guesting on Oscar Levant's interview show, along with Elaine May, Mike Nichols, Lou Nova and Stan Kenton, I felt beforehand like the late Erich von Stroheim felt when he played Bach with his gloves on in "Sunset Boulevard"—which is to say uncomfortable.

But once I was on the tele-beam with Oscar I felt completely at ease. He displayed none of that widely heralded irascibility; in fact, I brought along a copy of his book, "A Smattering of Ignorance," and he autographed it for me, on camera: To Mike Connolly (sic-SIC!) with admiration and fear!

DINING AT LA Scala after the show with Oscar and his lovely wife, June, I learned he bowed out of playing the part of Bing Crosby's piano-playing pal in 20th-Fox's "Say One for Me" with this excuse: "I'm not well—I have psychic hives!" Another quote from Levant (via Heinrich Heine): "Some actors can move me to tears but so can onions."

Bob Hope to an aspiring (but dumb) young TV actress: "Look, honey, we've never found a way to telecast brains so just show as much of your figure as the law allows."

Erin O'Brien's ex-business managers (Gabbie, Lutz, Heller and Loeb—and they're also Liberace's ex-managers) are suing the telegirl for $5,000, claiming they owe her that in unpaid commissions. Accordingly, they slapped a lien on her first filmed commercial for Schlitz, a $10,000 job.

PERSONAL OPINIONS: Hey, Genevieve, you pretty Parisienne on the Jack Paar show, your French is getting Frenchier and your obviously preconceived ingenuousness is beginning to show—and since when does a doll who's been in the U.S. as long as you have pronounce Chinatown "Cheenatoon"??

Jim Backus bagged Spencer Tracey's old Poppa part in the new MGM-TV version of "Father of the Bride," a series.

County Continues Bradley-Burns Tax Plan; But Wants Close Check On Village's Gains

The Board of Supervisors voted three to two this week to continue the Bradley-Burns sales tax program for six months, through June 30, with the explicit understanding that if the Board of Equalization figures show that the City of Palm Springs would stand to gain more than ten per cent under the program and Palm Springs should nevertheless refuse to give the county ten per cent of its tax receipts, the entire program will be discontinued.

At present, all cities but Palm Springs are donating ten per cent and Palm Springs which previously made no donation has agreed to donate five per cent for the six months period.

VOTING AGAINST the six months' extension, proposed by Supervisor Jones after a motion by Supervisor Fred McCall for a 90-day extension had failed to carry, were Supervisor George Berkey and Supervisor Paul Anderson. Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain voted with Berkey and Anderson against the 90-day extension but approved the six months' extension.

"Are you going to take the last nickel of Palm Springs' profit if they have a profit?" asked Supervisor Berkey. "It's already been proved that they'll gain more than ten per cent," replied Supervisor Jones.

"PALM SPRINGS would lose more than any city in the county except Riverside if the Bradley-Burns program was discontinued," opined Supervisor McCall.

"You can't expect George (Berkey) to agree," said Jones, "as he lives so near Palm Springs and it's in his district."

"You surely can't expect me to agree with such wild statements," declared Berkey.

BERKEY HAS consistently contended that the exception of Palm Springs should be discontinued, that the growth factor and other unusual factors should be considered. He said this week that he regards the offer of Palm Springs to donate five per cent for six months as a "gift."

The board received official notice from the City of Palm Springs that it has adopted an emergency ordinance agreeing to the five per cent allocation for six months. The ordinance reads in part, "In order to save the tax program, it is necessary for the City of Palm Springs to reduce its share of the one per cent sales and use tax collected to .35 per cent."

ALSO RECEIVED by the Board of Supervisors was a letter from Dixwell L. Pierce, secretary of the State Board of Equalization. Referring to Palm Springs' six-months donation of five per cent, and a recent action by the City of Corona to continue the program for the six-months period, Pierce declared, "No doubt the county and the cities will have occasion to give the subject further consideration during the coming year because of its bearing upon the continued status of Riverside County as conforming under the Bradley-Burns uniform local sales and use tax law."

"MEANWHILE," CONTINUED Pierce, "we are happy to know that we shall have the privilege of continuing to serve the county and its cities after Dec. 31, 1958, in the administration of their local sales and use tax ordinances. We hope that prior to July 1, 1959, there will be further developments making it possible for us to act on your behalf after that as well."

Supervisor Berkey observed that the supervisors will continue to meet with the League of Cities committee to discuss the sales tax and other matters of joint interest, the next meeting to be this Friday evening, Jan. 9.

Crepes Suzettes invented by Henri Charpentier and this is his recipe. Henri is different from most chefs as he will share his treasured recipes if he believes one is really interested.

Ingredients for the Crepes and Sauce.

4 eggs, 3 tbs. of flour, 3 tbs. of milk, pinch of salt, 1 tbs. of water. Beat to consistency of olive oil.

Cook on griddle with sweet butter and keep turning.

Stew a small piece of orange and lemon peel in a little water for a few minutes. Add 1/4 lb. of sweet butter. When bubbling add 2 tbs. of Vanilla sugar, 5 ponies of a blend of Grand Marnier, Curaçao and Kirsch. Keep this mixture hot but not quite boiling. Set this mix on fire and while blazing dip the crepe into the sauce, roll and serve.

The crepes should be about 3 or 6 inches in diameter. Vanilla sugar is made by putting a whole stick of vanilla bean in a quart jar of fine sugar and let stand for several days. This vanilla sugar can be used in many ways and it is good to have on hand.

All of the ingredients for Crepes Suzettes are available at Sale's Markets.

A DINNER at the Tennis Club honoring Dr. Raymond Lindquist, pastor of Hollywood Presbyterian Church, was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf, at whose home the Lindquists spent the Polo and tennis are not sports to be played together, but socially they blend beautifully as shown by the Polo Club's first of the '59 season meeting in the Tennis Club on Sunday night.

Organized in 1933, the Polo Club is one of Palm Springs' oldest social clubs. It was formed when polo was an active sport here and, even though Palm Springs now has no polo team, they still have a very active Polo Club which meets the first Sunday of each month during the winter. Usually the meetings are held in the Club's own building at the old polo field. However, this meeting took on a new setting as Mrs. Austin McManus, one of the original Polo Club members and owner and operator of the Tennis Club, was hostess with another long-time member of the Polo Club, Mrs. Irving Snyder. The two received members and guests in the Venetian Room for cocktails and later attended the Tennis Club's first Sunday night buffet dinner in the Bougainvillea room, where many danced until late in the evening.

The Polo Club has an interesting background having been organized in the days when the Palm Springs team consisted of such polo players as Walt Disney, Will Rogers, Charlie Farrell, John Brindeis, Carl Beal, Red Gay and others. It was found that such a group was needed to entertain the polo players and their friends after the games so the Polo Club was born. The organization was active until World War II when many of the players were in service. After the war polo playing was not resumed here.

Frank Bogert, this year's president of the Polo Club, claims to be the only one in the club who has played polo, but as an active social group it can be topped by no other group in the Village.

They have certain hard and fast rules, such as no professional bartender can be used. Thus men like Irving Snyder, Jack Kenaston and Fred Watson are often seen behind the bar mixing the guests' favorite beverage. Each meeting there are two hostesses appointed, and they usually pick a theme for the party of that month. Jack Boyer's chuckwagon dinner is the highlight of the gathering when the meetings are held in the Polo Clubhouse.

Angel View Auxiliary Meets Thursday

The regular monthly membership meeting of the Palm Springs Auxiliary of the Angels' View Crippled Children's Foundation of Desert Hot Springs will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Jack Copass at 1554 South Calle Marcus on Thursday, January 8, at 11 o'clock.

All members and those interested in the work of the Foundation are cordially invited to attend and are requested to call Mrs. John Seemans at FA 4-2056 or Mrs. Morris Gold, FA 8-1347.

Mrs. Morgan Bailey, one of the founders of the Desert Hot Springs Foundation, will be the chief speaker during the coffee hour and there will be a discussion of the work planned for the coming spring season.

Mrs. Copass will be assisted by members of the executive committee, Mmes. John Seemans, Ray Lusby, Irwin Schuman and Harry Grimm.

The Ranch Club were the Henry Wilcoxons (he's the producer of "Buccaneer")... Herb Leonard (producer of "The Naked City")... and Elena Verdugo of TV... Jane and Bill Dart were noted in the brunch and dinner crowd... while the George Liberaces were there for dinner three nights in a row.

Joyce and Noel Clarke have set January 23 as the night when they will celebrate their Fourth Anniversary at the Ranch Club... with the usual chuckwagon buffet... and with western garb the costume for the evening...

Lily Pons (looking lovely as ever... and still with blonde hair) was at the Community Concert's Kick Off dinner (she's honorary president of the Music Society here) at the Racquet Club.

Lily told me that she will fulfill a Community Concert engagement in Sacramento on the 21st... and then will be back here at her beloved hilltop home until March.

Among the weekend guests at the Mortimer Halls (Diana Lynn) spent several days at Howard Manor... and Harold Kaufman of Caracas, Venezuela is resting up on a global tour.

You know how it is with committees... someone gets stuck with a job... and casts an appraising eye around to find someone to help him... They meet and talk...

...and someone keeps minutes about what motions were made, seconded and carried... Someone heads the advance gifts fund... and someone hits the merchants for door prizes... and then there's another committee meeting... and everyone wonders if all the plans should be changed... and there are more motions and minutes and notices... and the chairman keeps a firm grip to prevent anything and everything from falling apart...

But that's the old-fashioned way... and ex-Mayor Charlie Farrell, fabulous example of fabulous Palm Springs... found himself a chairman last week and decided to do things differently...

Heading up the Palm Springs drive for the March of Dimes... Charlie thought it might be easier if he went after the dollars instead of the dimes... and he will probably raise the whole amount on January 29 when he stages one of the famous Racquet Club parties... and opens it to the public (providing there is room... Racquet Club members always turn out en masse for these costume parties) at $25 a couple...

The party... which is scheduled for the night of January 29... will have an "Around the World" theme... and costumes can be from any place in the world...

There will... to be sure... be advance gift letters... but different... The letters... written in Charlie's informal style... will go out on Racquet Club stationery and will be signed with his own whimsical "Love and Kisses, Charlie" signature... known to all Racquet Club members...

Oh, yes... if you are wondering what ever became of the plans for a style show dinner... earlier in the month... It was dropped because it would have been sandwiched in between two other big events that week...

Panhellenic Luncheon

On Thursday

Coachella Valley Panhellenic will hold its regular monthly luncheon meeting Thursday at 12:30 at Shadow Mountain Club, with Mrs. George Ripley and Mrs. George Munn as hostesses.

In addition to regular members, visitors to the desert who are members of national social sororities are invited to attend.

Reservations may be made by calling area chairmen, Mrs. John C. Bernet, Palm Springs, FA 5-2080; Mrs. Kay Olesen, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, FI 6-6254; Mrs. Harry Ramsey, Indio, DI 7-3574.

Art Exhibit to Open at Playhouse

Palm Springs Playhouse Guild will continue its policy of art exhibits at the Playhouse during the 14-week theatre season. Paintings by Palm Desert artist, Mrs. G. Powell Harding, will open the series January 9 and will be exhibited through the 18th.

In Mrs. Harding's paintings employing the mediums of water color, casine and oil, several styles will be found portraying the desert scene as well as the Pacific coast area. Desert scenes in her non-typical style will be followed by an abstract shown this year at the Los Angeles Museum depicting a side of Mt. San Jacinto clad in rocks and snow and dark under the moonlight.

Her Pacific coast paintings range from realism at Jenner-by-the-Sea to a California Water Color Society prize painting of that area. She has painted in the desert area for many years and has a group of artists working with her in her Palm Desert studio as well as the Leisure Loft. She has to her credit the establishment of the Santa Monica City Art gallery.

Holiday Ends

Mrs. Carol Y. Weaver has returned to her home in Fresno after celebrating the holidays at B-Bar-H Guest Ranch in Desert Hot Springs. Mrs. Weaver, who is a teacher in Fresno, had cause for a double celebration New Years as it was also her birthday.

January 3 at 10:26 a.m., a six pound, five ounce girl was born at the Desert Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pack of 3965 Calle de Carlos.

To Attend Launching of Atomic Sub

The launching of the USS Halibut SSGN-587 at the Mare Island Naval Shipyard in Vallejo Friday will be attended by Mrs. Drucilla Morgan of Rancho Trailer Park. Mrs. Morgan left Tuesday for Los Angeles to join her long-time friends, Congressman and Mrs. Ghet Holifield (he is Congressman for the 19th District in L.A.), to make the trip to Vallejo. Mrs. Holifield will christen the Halibut which is the first atomic submarine to be launched on the Pacific Coast.

Later in the evening Mrs. Morgan will attend the reception at the Naval Base honoring Mrs. Holifield.

Silvermans Entertain for The Friedmans

The Edwin Silvermans entertained at cocktails in their home on Avenida de los Palmas in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Friedman who are visiting here from New York. He is head of Rose Picture Corporation.

Among those attending and later going on to the Racquet Club for dinner were Messrs. and Mmes. Bill Foreman, Dave Lewis, Robert Lippert of Lippert Productions in Hollywood, Richard Lyon and Asher Levy.

Cahuilla Chapter Meets Thursday

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. will meet at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Harmon, at the Lavender Glass House, Indian Wells, Indio at 12:30 p.m. on Thursday, January 8. A dessert luncheon will be served by Mrs. Harmon and her co-hostesses Mrs. Howard M. Jay and Mrs. Kenneth B. Edwards.

Following luncheon, a business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. William E. From, Regent.

All interested in Daughters of American Revolution are invited to attend. Call Mrs. Harmon, FI 6-8816 if you are planning to attend this luncheon.

A social hour will follow the business meeting.

Rancho Mirage

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Carl were surprised with a weekend visit from their daughter and family, Ruth and Bill Troutman, and their 15-year-old son, Bill, Jr. The Troutmans, who live in Anaheim—where he owns the Troutman Mortuary—enjoyed golf, swimming and horseback riding during their desert visit.

The additional units that were under construction at Bill Boland's colorful Casbah were completed just in time to accommodate holiday guests. Here for three days between the festive holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Frazar, enroute from Mexico to their home in Desert Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Lowry were here from Denver, Colo., for three days and Vicki and Lyle Draves, former Olympic diving champions, and their two boys stopped for a few days enroute from their Encino home to Phoenix, Ariz., where the boys competed in a diving meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Butts—he is a prominent Los Angeles attorney—and their three daughters were at Casbah for the holiday vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Don Doig and son Ray, who spent Thanksgiving week at the Casbah, returned to enjoy Christmas Week in the sun. While here, their other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Doig Jr., of Beverly Hills, visited them for a few days. Doig, Sr., is associated with the Los Angeles Turf Club. Mr. and Mrs. Rene Pedroni were here for a week from Palo Alto as were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Osborn of Santa Ana. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vandenberg and daughters Paula and Joanne, were here for the New Year's weekend and left Monday for their home in San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Johnson, vacationing in the desert for a month from Seattle, Wash., paid a surprise visit to the home of their close friends, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Swanson. The Johnsons plan on visiting relatives in Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., during their stay here.

Johnson, an insurance executive, is chaplain of American Legion Post No. 1 in Seattle.

During the holiday season, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Doak entertained as their houseguests Mrs. Robert Morrison and daughter Charivilla of Albuquerque, N. Mex., here for Christmas week, and Dr. and Mrs. T. V. Calkins, also of Albuquerque, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Reed of Oxnard left for their home Sunday after spending New Year's week with the Doaks.

Among holiday week and weekend guests at the Casa Verde Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Beteman of Monterey Park, Jose T. C. Pepe from Guadalajara, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moody of Montrose, Mr. and Mrs. William Brant, on a vacation in the sun away from their home in New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burns, here from their home in Park Ridge, Ill. Also Walter B. Trace of Fullerton, Jack Horrell, Bob Anderson and Don Yardel from Laguna.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Jr., and family were here from their home in Bel Air to spend the New Year's weekend at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Sr.

Enjoying the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Phillip and children Linda and Steven were her sister Margie Carter of Los Angeles and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don De Wolf, who moved to Rancho Mirage the first part of December from Beverly Hills. De Wolf retired as chief engineer in charge of the sound department at NBC's Hollywood studios.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson left for their home in Vancouver, B.C., after spending the holidays at the Montecito Apartments. Also enjoying a desert holiday there were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Graham of Menlo Park, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kohler of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. William Pemberton of Pasadena, and Mr.

and Mrs. O. V. Stockton of Santa Maria.

After spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. Ronald Button, their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ronald Button II, and boys Charles and Glenn and Mrs. Button Sr.'s mother, Mrs. Harriet McConnell, left Sunday for their homes in Los Angeles. Button, who spent the weekend in Sacramento winding up his affairs, returned Monday and he and Mrs. Button are happy to be desert residents once again.

Dr. Edwin M. Gordon, with children Robin, Joy and Gregory, piloted his own plane from Los Angeles to spend New Year's Day and the weekend with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Gordon, at their desert home on Magnesia Falls Drive. The George Gordons returned to their home in Santa Monica after spending the holiday season in Rancho Mirage.

Enjoying the Christmas holidays at Desert Holiday Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson and daughter, Brenda, of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams of Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Wallis of Studio City, Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Putnam, and son, of Ventura—Dr. Putnam is president of Ventura Junior College—and frequent guests Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilhelm of Studio City.

Senator Fred Kraft who makes his home in San Diego, spent Christmas at Desert Holiday for the third season, and Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Sheets and his mother Mrs. Gail Sheets were here from Hollywood for the week. At Desert Holiday for the holiday weekend, bidding adieu to the old and hi to the New Year, were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Manges and Mr. and Mrs. John Keeling of Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garms of North Hollywood—who were guests of Leon Gordon of Blue Slides Trailer Park—Buddy Borgen and Howard, stage directors of TV's Playhouse 90, Diana McLaughlin, Lois O'Connor, Leverage Casey, Beverly Dale and Jean Fagan of CBS Hollywood studios. Also Eleanor Ladd and Gwyneth O'Brien of Pacific Palisades, who are associated with the offices of Ludlow Flower, Jr., in Los Angeles, and Dr. and Mrs. V. A. Soderberg of North Hollywood. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Svoboda, co-owners of Desert Holiday Hotel, hosted dinner at Shadow Mountain Club for Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams of Hollywood who were married Thanksgiving, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron. Dr. Adams recently purchased the Rancho Del Sol.

Hubble Resigns City Park Board Post; New Policy

City Council at its conference session this week received a letter of resignation from Reed Hubble, member of the Variance Board and the Park and Recreation Board, as a member of the latter. The resignation from one board was made necessary by the council's new policy which says that a person can serve on only one board or commission. His resignation will be accepted by the council tonight, and it will then be submitted to the Park and Recreation Board for recommendations for filling the position.

Contract to Be Awarded Tonight

Contract for moving the Palm Springs Health Center to its new site near the new Palm Springs Police station is expected to be let Wednesday night to Bill Foster, low bidder of three submitted. Foster's bid was $8,340, $841 over the estimate. The other two bidders for the project were Associated Builders and the Press Construction Co.

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: What would you do if your husband bought food like he was feeding a family of 12 and couldn't get to a grocery store for a year? That's my Gus. I'm a wreck from shifting canned goods, sacks of flour and cases of detergent around. He hunts up bargains in the newspaper and runs to food sales and fills up the car. My cellar and cupboards are so crammed full we could feed an army and there's just the two of us and we never entertain. We live one block from a Supermarket. I think he's crazy. This has been going on for years. I bought a freezer but it only made matters worse because now he's got that filled with frozen foods. What's ailing him, anyhow?

ANXIOUS TO HEAR

DEAR ANXIOUS: A psychiatrist would probably call this a "compulsion to hoard." Your husband really should stop and see a doctor on his way home from the store sometime.

with your parents. It was generous of your fiancé to give his approval, but since you accepted his diamond, you should decline his offer to date others. You made your choice.

DEAR ABBY: There is this girl at school who I am sure is a very nice girl underneath it all, but if I told anybody that I liked her they wouldn't associate with me any more. She wears so much makeup that you would think she was made up to go on a stage. Her hair is up and she boasted that she had 101 bobby pins in it. One of the teachers made her wash her face once, but the next day she had the make-up on as thick as always and said that was the style and the teacher was square. Do you know of any way I could help this girl without insulting her?

CAROLYN

DEAR CAROLYN: The girl you describe is not likely to accept criticism from anyone who is merely a nodding acquaintance. If you are sincere about "helping" her, gain her confidence by offering your friendship first. Then move in with the helpful suggestions.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LILA: Your "big wheel" must have lost his "w." Lose him.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ARLENE: You are "mature" when you can do what you OUGHT to do whether you want to do it or not.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THELMA: The difference between a successful marriage and a mediocre one consists of leaving about 3 or 4 things a day unsaid.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman in my thirties who, about six months ago, decided to have plastic surgery on a nose that was so big it gave me a complex. It was a very successful operation, but my problem is this. When I see friends I haven't seen in a long while and they say, "You look simply wonderful but there is something different about you and I can't figure out what it is," should I tell them or not?

RIVA

DEAR RICA: Certainly. If you don't—somebody else will.

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé is stationed in Germany and will be there for two years. Before he left we became engaged in the Church and he gave me a beautiful diamond. My fiancé says it is okay for me to go out on dates with other boys while he's gone to take my mind off my loneliness. My parents say that no engaged daughter of theirs is going out on dates. Don't you think that if my FIANCE doesn't mind, my parents have no say in the matter? I am almost 18.

LONESOME

DEAR LONESOME: I agree

RESERVATION SERVICE

IN AIRLINE HISTORY

—thanks to electronics!

Now—electronics fills your reservation request in just seconds! Western Airlines has placed in operation its new "Resetron," an electronic brain that makes possible the fastest reservation service ever. Resetron searches through thousands of seating possibilities to find and reserve your seat—for tomorrow's flight or for six months ahead.

This new service will save you time, by phone or in person. Ask about any Western Airlines flight.

Your request flashes by teletype to Western's central electronic brain. Instantaneously, the "brain" notes your reservation and confirms it automatically. No waiting and no "oversolds"!

Resetron was developed jointly by Western Airlines and Teleregister Corporation. It's the latest of many new services introduced by Western. And it's ready for you, right now. See how electronically fast your reservation on Western is handled!

Ramon

Big holiday parties are being enjoyed by all the parks in the area but Ramon had one more than all the others and this one was really a "Special." This party was in celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Harry and Vesta Read. Harry is the beloved night manager and long time resident of Ramon and their many friends wanted to be sure this occasion would be one long remembered.

Harry had planned two surprises for Vesta. They were their two fine strapping grandsons, Barry and Michael Read, ages 18 and 14, who arrived by plane from Portland, Ore., unexpectedly on the great day.

HOWEVER, THIS was not the only surprise planned for the Read's for that day. Harry's and Vesta's many friends in Ramon Park had quietly prepared a most beautiful parchment scroll complete with art work by John David Purviance and signed by the 200 who planned this huge secret in honor of their friend's anniversary.

In addition to the parchment of regard, Ramon friends also created a dramatic "money tree" laden with gold-wrapped silver dollars. The tree became so heavily "burdened" that a golden cornucopia on a tray was also used to spill forth many additional golden dollars!

The Reads had planned to entertain their friends of Ramon that Friday at the coffee hour, regularly held from 2:30 to 4 p.m. However, they had no idea over 200 of their friends would pour in at exactly 2:30.

THE READS were so happy. "Ramon Park seems more like home than any other place," they said. "Everyone here is so very dear to us. We were thrilled to have them share our fiftieth anniversary with us."

Focal point of the serving table was a enormous and majestic gold and white, three-tiered wedding cake. This, and the guest book table, at which their daughter-in-law, Dottie Read, officiated, added to the stunning holiday decor of the hall.

While Harry and Vesta were busily greeting friends, Lida Dunlap cut the cake: Ethel Coolidge served it and Betty and Oliver (Windy) Grew poured the tea and coffee.

Charlotte Brown played "The Anniversary Waltz," also the Anniversary Song and "I Love You Truly" on the piano. The presentation of the money tree, the cornucopia and the scroll was then made while 200 guests applauded.

Skyridge

If anyone would care to know the whereabouts of old Santa these days now that Christmas is over, they'll find him, as I did, lying in the sun in a chaise longue in the most pleasant Skyridge Trailer Park. Even friend Santa seemingly knows there's no better place on earth to relax and enjoy the sun than here on our desert, and more especially at Skyridge Park where he retired from his chimney position.

It's no wonder that Santa would want to stay here, Christmas in this friendly but picturesque setting was delightful with its festive colorful decorations, the lovely music of Merle Hancock's outstanding voice singing the thrilling "Birth of the King" and "O Holy Night," the happy fellowship of friends and neighbors and the true message of Christmas, given by Frank Carey on the Sunday before Christmas, by the Nativity Scene and through the carols sung by carolers and others who attended. Caroling was accompanied by Lois LUX.

THE ANNUAL Christmas party here at Skyridge filled the clubhouse to overflowing this season. A brilliantly lighted ceiling-high tree, with a colorful reindeer display, poinsettias, snow scenes and other flowers all added to the festive spirit of the happy Christmas gaiety. Carols and games were enjoyed and gifts exchanged with much merriment.

Delicious refreshments were provided also by the ladies of the park with Carrie Trimm as chairman, assisted by Margaret Sargent, Mabelle Rummell, Laurene Lalor and others.

The Christmas dinner held here was also a masterpiece. With turkey, dressing, sweet potatoes and all the fixings, residents were delighted with good food, good fellowship and beautiful surroundings.

In preparation for this delightful dinner, virtually all the ladies present that day in the park assisted Mary Harrison and Dr. John Ranson. Following the dinner, colored sound movies were shown.

MANY HERE had guests over Christmas. Maudene Mundell has had Myrtle Crane of Glendora as her guest during the Christmas holidays. Peggy Van Scoyoc had a home full of guests over the holidays. She entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roger Allen and sons from Oceana, Mrs. Fawner of Santa Ana, a cousin, and her brother, L. H. Van Scoyoc, of Santa Ana, and also her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter.

A number of other residents have traveled the way of the four winds to visit with their relatives and loved ones over the holidays. Mary Ellen Taylor spent the Christmas and New Year's with her daughter, Mrs. Don Hallaway in San Luis Obispo; Dr. and Mrs. Ed Smith were called to their home in Seattle and spent the holidays there. The Warren Glasses visited in Temple City, the Lee Dickinsons in Phoenix. The Bert Zarzs visited in Glendale, the William Holmes in San Diego and in Berkeley, the Bert Conroys visited Redwood City. The Paul Smiths were off to Inglewood, the Mike Osbornes to Bijou, and the H. E. Balls to Delano.

DR. AND MRS. Harold Mansfield visited in Balboa, the Harold Quasts in Inglewood, Myrtle Gaines in Los Angeles, Daisy Russell visited in San Bernardino, the Dewey Evans traveled to Eugene, Ore. and Dr. and Mrs. Logan to Costa Mesa and Glendale. The Ralph Warners visited in Woodland Hills, the Leon Wollington's in Laguna Beach and the Ernie Roddas enjoyed the holidays in Los Angeles.

Ruth and Raymond Counright are now permanent residents of Skyridge having just purchased a Ramada here. Their home is Ann Arbor, Mich. Fred and Bea Allman are delighted with their new ten wide Golden State.

Merle and Clara Hancock, owners of Skyridge, enjoyed a post-Christmas trip to Oak Creek Canyon and the Grand Canyon with former Skyridgers Jack and Bernice Pyle.

Sahara Park

Looking over the past year, Sahara has many happy memories of pleasant experiences and honors bestowed upon this outstanding mobile home park. Being chosen this year to represent the best mobile living by Pictorial Living and the National Geographic Magazine are only two of the many sparkling memories.

December, last month in '58, had a full calendar of activities. Each month new committees for the activities scheduled outshine even their previous efforts. The December Women's Club activities were varied and well-attended. The Monday luncheons and card parties have gone especially well with R. Zella Deeny and Helen Brillhart, chairman and co-chairman, with their willing committee keeping all delighted with their efforts.

THE SAHARA DINNER and Christmas party was attended by over 200 park residents and their guests. A most delicious ham dinner was served by the ladies of the committee. The tables and club house were festively decorated with red and green streamers, stately red candles, Santa peering from out of corners. Desert primroses shaped as gilded bird cages were decorative with brightly-colored birds hanging from ceiling beams. The tree, decorated in all its splendor, had reflective beauty from its window location. Beneath the tree was a box of toys contributed by residents of the park. This was in the true Christmas spirit of giving, for these were designated to be taken to the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society of Palm Springs and donated to needy children of the area. Santa, with a loaded sleigh and seven life-size reindeer, rode atop the club house brightly-lighted for all to see — even from Highway 111.

The Christmas music of this entertaining evening was delightful. Ward Strickland's Orchestra played softly during the dinner and, after the program, added their dance music for all to enjoy. For the program, Sahara guests enjoyed three solos given by Mrs. Rosalie Hall, daughter of Mrs. Oliver Harker, who with her husband Frank Hall are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harker of Sahara Park. Mrs. Myrth Hoffman accompanied Mrs. Hall, a lyric soprano, who has appeared throughout the years on many programs in and around New York City.

MRS. HALL HAS considered it an honor and privilege on many occasions to render the National anthem as an opening song. In Katona, New York, she sings her lovely solos for the church there. Friends encouraged her to study the accordion to accompany herself, and she has especially enjoyed entertaining weekly the hospitalized veterans in the various veteran hospitals in New York City and vicinity with accordion playing and singing.

Another artist of song, Gilbert Paquette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Paquette, of Horizon Trailer Village sang three numbers which were enjoyed by all who attended. Gilbert was accompanied by Mrs. Lois Lux of Palm Springs, another well known musician. At the present time Gilbert Paquette is in the United States Air Force and is stationed at March Air Base. He has taken part in many of the prominent musical programs here in the desert area, which is home to the Palm Springs boy. During his service in Japan, Gilbert won third in the Ed Sullivan contest conducted overseas.

ON WEDNESDAY a delightful evening continued with community singing of the traditional Christmas carols, accompanied by the Strickland's orchestra. Santa and his helpers then arrived, giving gifts to all. George B. Davies acted as Santa and his helpers were Clair Anderson, and Helen Child.

Christmas parties and dances, vacation fun and New Year's gaiety gone, the sad and somewhat weary teen-ager returns to school with his New Year's resolution to study harder.

And we have great anticipation of all the exciting activities to come.

Last night we began our efforts to win the Riverside County League championship in basketball, meeting the Perris Panthers on our home court, and, this Friday we tackle the San Jacinto Tigers, again on our home court.

ANOTHER THING everyone's looking forward to is the senior play, which is to be given sometime in February. The junior play presented in December was a tremendous success; and the seniors have promised that theirs will be even better (Of course, seniors always think they're best).

Well, we'll have to wait and see. They're presenting "The Curious Savage," by John Patrick — a play with which I'm sure everyone is familiar.

THE CAST consists of Donivee Ellison, George Nicholson, David Siegel, Frank Hilton, Sue Pailsgaard, Ann Daniel, Kathy Fitzpatrick, Gary Soule, Pat Barbara and Linda Creaves.

All of them will be practicing every night after school until the presentation in February.

Well, I guess that about winds up the chatter for this week—see you next week.

British Visitors In Holiday at Rancho Mirage

RANCHO MIRAGE — Holiday house guests at the home of Clara and Elizabeth Fox were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. London and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kaye of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stone of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Mossy Gordon of Los Angeles.

Elizabeth and Clara were hostesses at a New Year's Eve party honoring their guests and the visitors from England on their first visit to the desert. They were greatly impressed by the Salton Sea and many other points of interest. They will visit in Los Angeles before returning to Europe.

Tape Five

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — (UPI) —The Harvard Medical Alumni Bulletin recently carried a note announcing that, "The Medical School and its hospitals can offer a variety of opportunities to the college girl with a chemistry major or a liberal arts major plus secretarial skills."

The note promised "high salaries, attractive fringe benefits," and then, in italics: "exciting extracurricular activities!"

TWO VILLAGERS TANGLE in what should be an hilarious slugfest when Bob Hope meets Mickey Finn in the new motion picture "Alias Jesse James." Hope, a Palm Springs home owner, belts Finn, likewise a Village resident, as he dispenses a lesson in honesty to members of the James gang in this scene from the film. Other members of the cast, which also stars Rhonda Fleming and Wendell Corey, are also resort area residents.

CONSTRUCTION IN PALM SPRINGS FOR WEEK VALUED AT $283,150; PACED BY BANK BUILDING

Palm Springs builders marked the holiday season by adding $283,150 worth of new construction to the city during the holiday week.

Resort building was paced last week by construction of the new $200,000 Security-First National Bank Building, the City Building Department reported today.

A Happy New Year surprise was enjoyed by Mrs. Maude Griffiths when her nephew and family, M/Sgt. and Mrs. Eugene Gay and children Linda, Eugene, Charles and Ralph, visited her from Victorville where he is now stationed with the Air Force. They had just returned from duty in Guam. He was with General MacArthur on Corregidor.

Among holiday weekend guests at Sunair Terrace were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Halpern and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frechtman of Los Angeles, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Leigh of Woodside, who were here for a week, Sgt. and Mrs. K. R. Gordon of Edwards Air Force Base, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cole from Sherman Oaks, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spangler and their two daughters from Oceanside.

Mrs. Grace Dunkin, who spent the summer and fall in Eugene and Portland, Ore., accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Eva Brown of Eugene, returned to her Sunair home last week. Mrs. Brown will spend the winter with Mrs. Dunkin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baker, owners of the Palo Verde Apartments, left via the airways last Sunday on a business trip to New York City and other eastern cities. Baker is sales manager for the Western Division of Saphire Hosiery Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Tupper add family of Glendale were among holiday weekend guests at the Palo Verde. Mrs. J. Howard Sandridge of Medford, Ore., who was confined at Desert Hospital, has returned to her apartment and her close friends. Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schilling of Van Nuys, will stay with her while she is convalescing. Mrs. Sandridge plans on spending the balance of the season in the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Downie, who were holiday weekend guests at the Melrose Drive home of Mr.

Saul Louis, manager of Palm Springs Imports, spent Christmas at his home in Los Angeles and Mrs. Louis and their daughter Linda returned to Palm Springs with him for New Year's Week. When their new home in Palm Lane Estates is completed, Mrs. Louis and Linda will move down from Los Angeles.

Welcoming the New Year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bedford, owners of Beate by Bedford in the Sunair Center Building, were Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Svoboda, Dagmar Kohl, Albert Stetson, Katie Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sing, Bob's brother, Al Bedford, Mrs. Elizabeth Trezevant and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Carter. Mr. and Mrs. Bedford will attend the Fellowship Dinner at the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Pomona, where Mrs. Bedford (Phylla) was soloist before moving to the desert. They plan on returning to the desert Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Berck returned last week to their Palm Heights apartment following a most interesting trip around the world. They first visited Honolulu and then went to Japan where they spent three weeks before going on to Hong Kong, Bangkok, New Delhi, Bombay, Pakistan, Teheran, Israel, Turkey, Greece, Italy, the French Riviera, Spain, Paris, Hamburg, Copenhagen, Sweden and London, then via Pan American Boeing jet plane for New York City. They returned to the coast to spend Christmas with their family in Los Angeles.

Genra Andrews and Wanda Hunick, distributors of Vi-San Products, will present a continuous showing of the film, "Your Priceless Possession" every Saturday at the Allure Salon in the Sunair Center Building.
